

CREDIBILITY CHECKER

HOW FAR CAN WE BELIEVE WHAT WE ARE READING OR SEEING?

ABILITY TO OBSERVE

Did the source really witness the event? Is the evidence presented hearsay or a first-hand eyewitness account?

RELEVANT EXPERTISE

The source has skills, expertise or training that would help them to interpret the situation accurately.

RELEVANCE

When images are used to support claims it is important to determine whether the images relate directly to the claims.

SIGNIFICANCE

What weight does an image give to the claim being made? Does the image strengthen claims being made?

SELECTIVITY

Does the claim offer only partial evidence? Is the whole context presented or have parts been selected to make a specific point?
